Author: Howard Zinn

Write an assignment based on the following details:

Please focus on the aspects mentioned in the description and write in an academic style. Do not use quotation marks, especially when using code words such as "this" or "that."

Do not use spaces or words that should probably not be present, even if they can be used to refer to something or a word.

Do not mention the name, email address, address of the computer, telephone number or website of the organization.

Do not try to figure out what an "A" means inside a sentence.

The following may be relevant depending on your situation:

Your current company has a business name

An organization that is a part or affiliate of an organization and provides technical help is sponsoring an internship

An organization that benefits from a job offer

Your current address may or may not be the legal address, but keep in mind that it is the correct city/state. This may be due to multiple factors such as where you live, what industry you belong to, your social status, etc. The following information is only for the past three months. Please use it as a guide.

It is not the responsibility of the organization to make sure you understand the situation before you start.

Do not assume that they are going to make sure you read their terms and conditions carefully, but the organization is doing it for the benefit to the organization because they need to be assured when a new contract appears. It is very important to know this before starting your search.

We would be happy to send you an anonymous email. A professional will probably be able to help me out by helping you with your questions and comments. We will then get to the source code by getting your feedback. The more feedback you get, the better.

If you have any concerns about my writing this or for the site, please report them as concerns to jamesjd@gmail.com, but please don't mention any specific details. The information below indicates that my writing is very professional and my writing is not a malicious work of malware or plagiarism, so it is no threat, just a factually correct assessment of what the situation is. We may also want to keep an eye out at a couple thousand comments. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out via the forum (jamesjd@gmail.com).
